

CLARE LEE

Stage & Screen Career Highlights

Clare Lee Holds a Bachelor's degree in Music from National Taiwan Normal University and a Master's in Musical Theatre Performance from New York University. Based in New York for eight years, she co-founded the Taiwanese Musical Theatre Artists of New York and performed in multiple productions including the Off-Broadway Comfort Women: A New Musical. She was twice invited by designer Malan Breton to open New York Fashion Week as a soloist.

After returning to Taiwan, Lee served as Performing Arts Instructor at NTNU, Vocal Coach for the Kaohsiung Chamber Choir, and Deputy Secretary-General of the Chinese Classical Singers Association. She is currently a lecturer at Southern Taiwan University of Science and Technology, Vocal Instructor at Taipei Municipal Fuxing High School, and conductor for the Taipei European School Show Choir & Yangmingshan Choir. Her credits span opera (Sapho), symphonic concerts with the Evergreen Symphony Orchestra, film, advertising, and voice acting – most recently voicing the lead in the VR film Dora, selected for the French XR Distribution & Development Market.
